

Leading the Way

MICHAEL D. EMERY, CFA
Senior Equity Portfolio Manager

Rainier Investment Management, Inc.® is pleased to announce the hiring of Michael D. Emery, CFA, as Senior Equity Portfolio Manager

Michael will focus primarily on the technology and health-care sectors. Michael's 13 years of investment experience include roles in research and analysis for Roger Engemann & Associates, Franklin Templeton Investments and most recently as vice president and small-cap portfolio manager with Provident Investment Counsel.

According to Chief Investment Officer James R. Margard, "Our investment process depends on in-depth analysis of individual companies by sector specialists, and because we look across all market sectors and industries for investment opportunities, cohesive teamwork plays a key element in portfolio construction. Mike's depth of experience in fundamental analysis and growth-oriented investing and extensive background across multiple industries in the technology and health-care sectors, make him a great fit for our team."

Holding the Chartered Financial Analyst designation, Michael earned his BA in Business Administration from the University of Washington and MBA from Cornell University.
